

Beautiful Scotland Judges Itinerary - We are Stonehaven!

Coastal Town Category and Haddington 700 Award Entry

Location	To Meet	Criteria sections	Comments	Notes
Allotments		A1, A2, A3, A4, B3,
Community Orchard	David Dredge of Horizon	A1, A2, A3, A4, B1, B2, C3	First year allowed to fruit. Trees provided by local authority. Wildflowers sown on river banks. Culvert area with various plant habitats identified for improvement
Burns Memorial Garden Note – entry for the Haddington 700 award	Douglas Samways of Burns Association and Allan Cairnduff of Horizon	A1, A2, A3, A4, B1, B2, C2, C3	Advice given by local authority. Refreshed planting with added interpretive elements to enhance visitor experience. Tree lit at Christmas. Many birds, hedgehogs and mice
Co-op		B1, C1, C2, C3	Artwork by Mackie Academy pupils
Market Square	David Lawman of Stonehaven Lions Club and Kath Boyne of Horizon	A1, A2, A3, A4, B1, C1, C2, C3	Presented by Stonehaven Lions. Community garden project; mix of formal civic planting while exploring sustainable options; annuals provided by local authority; birthplace of R W Thomson – tribute to be redesigned. Possible CLAN fundraising lighthouse

Arbuthnott Drain	Fireballs Association	A1, A2, A3, A4, B1,	Stretch to Alison B presented by The Fireballs Association – Historic canon, flood prevention measure with baskets; annuals provided by local authority, route of annual fireballs ceremony
Alison B		A1, A2, A3, A4, B1, B3, C1, C2	Donated rowing boat with sustainable planting
Shorehead	RNLI and Tolbooth Museum	A1, A2, A3, A4, B1, C2,	An area of historical significance and attraction
Pat's Patch	George Reid and Karen Donoghue of Horizon	A1, A2, A3, A4, B1, B2, B3, C1, C2,	Donated bench, wildflower plugs into cliff and around bench, sensory emphasis, bug hotel, bat box, bird feeding station, small pond, native tree planting, emphasis on recycling/upcycling, area of well-being
Phil's garden	Phil Carr	A1, A2, A3, A4. B1, B3, C1,	Emphasis on wildflowers
The Boardwalk and Promenade	John Cruickshank		Presented to you by the RNLI and Stonehaven Rotary Club
Lockdown pebbles		C1, C2,
Wave Garden	Bill Allan of Men's Shed
Stonehaven Open Air Pool	Wendy Rudd of Horizon and Friends of the Open Air Pool			