Beautiful Scotland Awards celebrate Aberdeen successes

National awards ceremony recognises Aberdeen's environmental efforts

Community groups, local authorities and businesses from all across Scotland, gathered in Dunfermline yesterday (Thursday 7 September) to celebrate the annual Beautiful Scotland Awards, organised by environmental charity, Keep Scotland Beautiful.

The ceremony, hosted by Fife Council, recognised the work undertaken in communities throughout Scotland to help deliver environmental improvements in their local area - including the efforts of six groups in Aberdeen.

A number of groups from Aberdeen received additional awards on the night, including Growing Smarter, Granite City Aberdeen. The group placed very high overall and was first place in the City category. It also received the Royal Caledonian Horticultural Society Trophy.

Aberdeen Inspired was presented with the VisitScotland Award for Tourism for its work on Nuart Aberdeen. Dyce in Bloom came out top in the Urban Community category and Powis Residents Group placed first in the Residential Community category.

The Aberdeen winners were:

- Aberdeen Inspired - Silver Gilt, VisitScotland Award for Tourism

- Cove in Bloom - Silver Gilt
- Dyce in Bloom - Gold, Urban Community Award Winner
- Growing Smarter, Granite City Aberdeen - Gold, City Category Award Winner, Royal Caledonian Horticultural Society Trophy

The Beautiful Scotland competition, which is run in partnership with the Royal Horticultural Society (RHS), brings communities together to help clean up and beautify the places that matter to them - and recognises the efforts of volunteers across Scotland as they work to enhance their own community.

Thirteen category winners, with 11 additional Discretionary Awards and the overall Rosebowl Award, were presented at the ceremony. All entries were assessed against the three core pillars of the Beautiful Scotland campaign - Horticultural Achievement; Environmental Responsibility and Community Participation.

The event, which brought over 250 delegates from across Scotland together in Dunfermline to receive their awards, saw Depute Provost of Fife, Councillor Julie Ford, present 25 accolades - recognising the high number of entrants into the competition.

Carole Noble, Operations Director of Keep Scotland Beautiful, commented:

“Beautiful Scotland provides the opportunity for Scotland to celebrate the outstanding achievements of volunteer groups across the country and recognises the significant contribution they make in helping to improve our local environmental quality.

“Aberdeen’s volunteers and council employees have worked tirelessly to ensure that the local spaces and places that they treasure are maintained to excellent standards. I would like to commend them on their efforts.

“In 2017 the campaign in Scotland reaches its 51st year. Keep Scotland Beautiful is delighted to, once again, celebrate and reward the dedication and achievements of the committed volunteers who create places that are good for our health, wealth and happiness.”

Beautiful Scotland is managed by Keep Scotland Beautiful, a member of the RHS Bloom Federation. Entrants are judged by a team of expert volunteer judges on their year-round achievements. Awards are presented to a range of local authorities and communities who have achieved the highest scores in their categories, with Discretionary Awards given to those who demonstrate excellence in their commitment to the campaign. Some of the winners will go on to represent Scotland in RHS Britain in Bloom in 2017.
