

The Sustainable Development Goals

Goal 10: Reduced Inequalities

- Make sure by 2030 the people currently earning the least in the world are earning more.
- Empower and promote the social, economic and political inclusion of all people. It does not matter what age, sex, race or disability a person has everyone should be supported and equal.
- Make sure laws and policies give everyone an equal say.
- All countries should have a chance to decide on global issues.
- Make sure the movement of people from country to country is safe.
- Help developing countries get the support they need.

Possible Learning Activities

- Compare and contrast average wages in Scotland with those in developing countries. Why are they different? Is it Fair?
- Look at minimum wage in Scotland, why it was introduced etc.
- Explore what equality is and how laws try to insure equality for all.
- Research if all countries have an equal say in global issues exploring why some countries might have more of a say than others.
- Investigate what global organisations there are that help all countries have their say. Discuss how the Sustainable Development Goals came about their aims.
