

The Sustainable Development Goals

Goal 16: Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions

- Reduce all forms of violence everywhere.
- End abuse of children.
- Make sure laws protect all people.
- Reduce corruption and bribery in all forms.

Possible Learning Activities

- Discuss the impact of violence on people's life exploring the causes of violent behaviour and how violence around the globe can be reduced.
- Explore the UN Rights of the Child examining the rights and responsibilities that all children have.
- Examine what a Fair school is? Why is it important to have open and honest organisations? Investigate what happens when organisations are not transparent.
- Research countries where legal identity is not provided for all. Why is legal identity important?
- Pupils can investigate how laws and policies are passed in Scotland. Compare and contrast this to a developing country exploring similarities and differences.
