

One Planet Picnic Quiz

Here are a few questions about food that you can use as a basis for a quiz or conversation starter at your One Planet Picnic. Our suggestions are:

- Use the questions as a fun quiz for teams. Keep score and give the winners a small prize.
- Add in some questions of your own about local food growers, producers, shops, restaurants.
- Set up the questions as part of a tag team race. Answer the question at each station before heading to the next station. Time taken and number of correct answers combine to give a winner.
