

Beautiful Kilconquhar – Wee Village Category

For Beautiful Scotland 3 pm Wednesday 31st July 2019

(names of people given may or may not be available on the day)

Location	Meeting	Criteria	Comments	Space for judge to write notes
Welcome
Tour starts with short slide show of groups work over the year and presentation of growth of two villages growing into one and historical points of interest	Elizabeth Bracher, Nancy McVean, Jacqui and Stuart Coulthard	A1, B1 B2, B3, C1, C2, C3.	History information board artwork, photographs of work through the year and other material on display. Plans for sustainable planting on the church flush.
Photo opportunity	In hall with	display
Quiet Garden	Nancy	A1, A2 A3, A4, B1, B2, C1,	Slow expansion, individual remembrances, community help. Visitors and Bird watchers Working on a new Bug hotel. Church Flush recycle of compost & soil. Quite Garden and Church flush sponsored by East Neuk Trinity Parish
Down Main street to the Dale and though old school yard entry into the Dale path	Bob and Cathy	A1,A2, A3, A4, B2, C1, C2,	Pub no window boxes this year as work on out side of the pub but links maintained with the head gardener of Balcaskie Estate. Colourful Dale Garden taken over from Fife Council in 2009. Community involvement – green house and planting by residents
Marsh Entry	?Albert	B1,B2, B3,	Working with Fife Kinross branch Scottish Wildlife Trust. Wildlife Trust Notice board and ditch drainage. Board walk bench clearing walk way. New notice board. Moth count, damselflies, and Marsh orchids in

			June
Down to the Dale Path to Cockie Chairlies Way	Ken	A3, B1, B2, C1, C2, C3	Ken's wild flower Patch, Bee friendly planting, anti Dog fouling – provision of bags, Clearing of path and fence. Herb tub.
Cockie Chairlies Way		A3, A4, B1, B2, B3, C1, C2, C3,	Garages the site of old cottages ? Cockie Chairlies cottage, rights of way plus old well site, Woodland Trust Hedging, Chestnut trees planted 6 years ago, Community Fruit Trees started planted 4 years ago and added to each year community involvement Bob Paton, Almost a woodland walk. Extension of Wild Flower Meadow. Yellow rattle seeds harvested each year from Kellie Castle Meadow with permission of the Head Gardener. Fighting Japanese Knotweed
Walk back to Meadow road - the 'old drying green' and up to Greenbrig road going past Paul Meridiths and down small right of way to Meadow road and then on to Bruce Square	?Paul Meridith, some one from Fernigar, Jim Stewart	A1, A3, B1, B3, C2, C3	Car park clearance and continued community involvement in planting and keeping clear. Recycled stones. Jim Stewart's display. Heather verge, 'Lawview' on corner of Meadow Road then onto Greenbrig Road note naturalised areas, point out rights of way
Up Kirk Wynd		B1	Historic rights of way/well access
Greenbrig Road	Bob Drummond	A1, A2, A3, A4, C1,	Scree garden and cul-de-sac Allotments, one of the 5 bee hives in the village
Walk back down Kirk Wynd to St Andrews Road via Bruce Square cottages		A1, A2, A3, A4, B1, C1,	Note gardens and smart bug hotel in Bruce Square. Bruce square – good neighbours helping out with gardening, the Paul's corner, Planting, group raised plants in tubs. Recycled of pallet – planter, bus stop planting sponsored by Colinsburgh and Kilconquhar Horticultural Society. Spontaneous planting actions = flower tub under village sign, and hanging basket on

			Bus stop
Main Street		A1, B1, C1, C2, C3	Window boxes, street furniture, Flower pot people competition. Herb tub
Main street to Memorial Garden and new tubs	? Mary and Josephine, ?	A1,A2, A3, A4, B1, B3, C1, C3,	Village centre Historic Bus Stop gained Architectural Award.
Photo opportunity	At War Memorial
			Tour ends	