

Young Reporters for the Environment Submission Form

Name(s)
School/College/Youth Group
Age category (If you're in a group, this is the age of your oldest group member)
Date of birth (DD/MM/YYYY)
Title of your entry (Should be < 140 characters)
Type of entry
Is your entry an international collaboration?	Yes No
If yes which partner country ?
Please list where you have shared your entry:
Which Sustainable Development Goal is your entry linked to?
Please explain how your entry links to your Sustainable Development Goal?

Consent

Please let us know if we have your permission to share your name along with your entry. If you do not want your name published, you can still enter the competition and have your work published anonymously.

YES - it is OK to publish my name.

NO – it is not OK to publish my name. I understand my work will be published anonymously.

Media Permission for Photos or Videos

If your entry includes a photo or video with a person in it, please make sure you have the permission of everyone in the photo or their parents/carers before submitting your entry.

Photos and films provided to us may be used for promotional activity relating to our charity's work, including on our website, in newsletters, on social media channels and in publications. We may also share these with partners and the press. By completing this form, you are providing consent to us to use the photos and films you have provided for an indefinite period of time. Media is used for approximately five years and then stored securely in our media archive for possible future use.

I have the permission of those in the images, videos and/or audio recordings to share them with Keep Scotland Beautiful. I hereby grant Keep Scotland Beautiful the right to use the media (photographs, film and audio recordings) and any reproductions or adaptations of the media for all general purposes in relation to the work of Keep Scotland Beautiful, including, without limitation the right to use the media in any publicity materials, newsletters, newspapers, magazine articles and online (web and social media) whenever Keep Scotland Beautiful choses to do so. I also grant Keep Scotland Beautiful permission to share the media with relevant partners and the press.

Signatures

Signature

(of Young Reporter if >16 or adult on behalf of Young Reporter if <16)

If signing on behalf of someone under 16: your name and relation to Young Reporter

Email Address

(For contact regarding your entry only)

Phone Number

(For contact regarding your entry only)

Send your entry and this form to us at youngreporters@keepsotlandbeautiful.org

Before you submit your entry, please make sure:

Article

- Your article is written in English or translated
- Your article is about a real and current local issue
- Your article suggests a constructive solution to an environmental issue
- Your article is the right length (max. 1000 words)
- Your article title is the right length (max. 140 characters)
- Your article includes 1-3 images with captions (max. 20 words)
- Sources used are listed in footnotes or a bibliography (MLA format)

Photo Reportage of 3-5 Photos

- Your photo description and captions are in English
- Your title is the right length (max. 140 characters)
- Your photos have a short introduction that explains the link with sustainability or a solution to an environmental issue (max. 100 words)
- Each photo has a short caption (max. 20 words)
- Your photos are a fair and truthful representation of reality and have not been altered
- Your photos include a relevant and feasible solution to an environmental issue
- Your photos are in the right format and resolution (.jpg or .png format with a resolution > 150-300 dpi)
- Sources used in the description or caption are cited in footnotes (MLA format)

Single Photo – Campaign

- Your photo title is the right length (max. 140 characters)
- Your (optional) photo description is in English
- Your (optional) photo description is the right length (max. 100 words)
- Your photo is a fair and truthful representation of reality and only has editorial changes (e.g. colour, cropping, shadows, contrast, highlights)
- Your photo is in the right format and resolution (.jpg or .png format with a resolution > 150-300 dpi)
- Sources used in the description or caption are cited in footnotes (MLA format)

Photo Reportage

- Your photo title is the right length (max. 140 characters)
- Your photo description and caption are in English
- Your photo description is the right length (max. 100 words + caption of max. 20 words OR description only max. 120 words)
- Your photo is a fair and truthful representation of reality and has not been altered.
- Your description or caption includes a relevant and feasible solution to an environmental issue
- Your photo is in the right format and resolution (.jpg or .png format with a resolution > 150-300 dpi)
- Sources used in the description or caption are cited in footnotes (MLA format)

Video

- Your video is in English or has English subtitles
- Your video is the right length (max. 3 minutes not including credits)
- Your video is in a format compatible with YouTube (.MOV .MPEG4 .MP4 .AVI .WMV .MPEGPS .FLV 3GPP WebM DNxHR ProRes HEVC(h265) CineForm)
- Your video title is the right length (max. 140 characters)
- Your video is about a real and current local issue
- Your video suggests a constructive solution to an environmental issue
- Your video is at least 70% your own footage, photos and audio
- Your sources are cited in the credits or a bibliography (MLA format)