

Book list

All books can be found on www.amazon.co.uk or www.barefootbooks.com/uk/shop

Climate Change

Under the Weather: Stories About Climate Change

by Tony Bradman

From the effects of rising sea levels to changes in animal behaviour and human lifestyles, these stories cover a wide range of localities from Siberia and Canada to Australia, UK, Sri Lanka and the Caribbean. Age 10 and over.

A Hot Planet Needs Cool Kids: Understanding Climate Change and What You Can Do About It

by Julie Hall

Children, parents, and teachers will find information about the causes and effects of climate change, how people are working to reduce it, and ways children, their families and schools can join the fight. Age 9 and over.

You Can Save the Planet

by Jacquie Wines

An easy-to-read guide showing how young people can make small changes to their families' lives that will have a real and positive impact on our environment. It's also packed full of environmental facts.

Will Jellyfish Rule the World?: A Book About Climate Change

by Leo Hickman

Breaks down the causes and effects of climate change in a fresh, fun and easy-to-follow format. Packed with practical everyday things we can all do right now to make a difference.

Funny Weather: Everything You Didn't Want to Know About Climate Change But Probably Should Find Out...

by Kate Evans

Comic-strip style cartoon about climate change. Age 10 and over.

This Is My Planet: The Kids' Guide to Global Warming

by Jan Thornhill

Looking at the amazing interconnections between humans and our environment, and how even small actions can add up to make big changes.

Climate Change

by Eve Hartman & Wendy Meshbesh

Explores and explains core science concepts and topics, firing pupils' curiosity about the world around them. Age 9 and over.

The Magic School Bus And The Climate Challenge

by Joanna Cole

Cartoon story with Ms Frizzle and her class, exploring how the world has changed on the Magic School Bus which travels back in time.

Renewable energy

Solar Power: Energy for Free

by Jim Pipe

Renewable Energy Sources

by Andrew Solway

Book list

Carbon Footprints and energy saving

How to Reduce Your Carbon Footprint

by Amanda Bishop

It clearly explains what an individual's carbon footprint is and what we all can do to make a difference. Ages 7-12.

Why should I save energy?

by Jen Green and Wendy and Mike Gordon

With pictures and simple text, this book shows the importance of saving energy. Ages 4-8.

Top tips to reduce energy and water waste in schools by Department for Education

This leaflet contains ten tips that will help schools: save money year on year; create a healthier school environment; and reduce demand on finite resources. For staff.

Spud Goes Green

by Giles Thaxton

A boy's diary of learning how to go green for one year.

Wider Reading

The Vanishing Rainforest

by Richard Platt

Could support the teaching of deforestation. The story is interesting, with beautiful pictures that children will love.

Note: The story is quite long

This Morning I Met a Whale

by Michael Morpurgo

A fictional account of the day a whale swam up the Thames, in which the whale makes an environmental plea to the boy who first sees him.

You Can: Have A Green School Ages 4-11

by Anthony David

Over 50 practical activities to build your confidence and effectiveness in Sustainable Schools. Ages 4-11.

The Barefoot Book of Earth Tales

by Dawn Casey

Learn how different cultures around the world set out to live in harmony with the natural world. The tales are each followed by a hands-on activity promoting green living and reinforcing the eco-messages of the stories. Ages 5-11

A Forest of Stories

by Rina Singh

Appreciate the natural world with this collection of tree folk tales from around the world. The seven stories each challenge readers to rethink their relationship with nature, and to think of trees in new ways. Ages 5-11.

Whole World

by Christopher Corr

Includes lots of facts about the earth's ecosystems and tips on how to be eco-conscious. Book with CD includes song sung by acclaimed children's performer Fred Penner. All ages.

