Sustainable fashion is possible!

Have you heard about shoes made from algae? Or 'leather' made of pineapple leaves?

Many people around the world are working hard to change the clothing and textile industry into a more sustainable one. From better conditions for workers and using innovative and biodegradable materials, to making sure that recycle, repair and reuse are essential parts of the industry, lots is happening!

How would you do it if you owned a sustainable fashion brand? Have a go and dream big and sustainable!
